

The Journey of Trash

Items like plastic bags, cups, straws, and cigarette butts can wash into storm drains and end up in our rivers, lakes, and bayous, eventually making their way into the food chain.

